

Transcript of Message from Martin Tugwell, Chief Executive of Transport for the North.

We're hiring, come work with us at Transport for the North.

Team TfN is made up of the bright minds we attract and retain through continually striving to be a best practise employer.

This is a chance to join that team and nurture talent as we drive forward with our vision of a more prosperous north.

We encourage applications from everybody and remain committed to a diverse and inclusive workplace.

We offer a competitive salary, excellent benefits package, and a fantastic degree of flexible working.

Join us to help make a real difference to the future growth and success of our region.